THE ANIMALS

AT THE GALLO-ROMAN MUSEUM

1
Welcome to your notebook!

This little figurine represents a well-known animal. You can find it in the display case of the cart. It will follow you throughout your visit to provide you with additional information.

First step? Look for visual clues; they will help you find the animals in the museum.

THE HIDDEN WORD!

SO MANY ANIMALS IN THIS MUSEUM! KEEP YOUR EYES PEELED, YOU'LL ENCOUNTER SEVERAL DURING YOUR VISIT. REMEMBER TO WRITE THEIR NAMES NEXT TO THE CORRECT NUMBER IN THE GRID AND YOU'LL DISCOVER A KEY WORD, WHICH WILL THEN GIVE YOU A LITTLE SURPRISE!

Let's venture down to the ground floor!

IN THIS VIDEO, YOU CAN SEE SEVERAL ANIMALS.
TWO SHOULD CATCH YOUR EYE: NOTE THEM BELOW!
IF NECESSARY, READ THE CLUES TO FIND THEM MORE EASILY.

1. I LIVE NEAR WATER AND I HAVE A FLAT TAIL.

2. MY STRENGTH ALLOWS ME TO TRANSPORT GOODS.

Now it's time to go up to the 2nd floor!

OUCH, OUCH, OUCH, SO MUCH TO SEE, IT'S EASY TO GET LOST! TRY TO FIND YOUR WAY BACK TO CONTINUE YOUR VISIT!

∨ START

Here you can see goblets, the ancestors of today's drinking glasses. They were used for drinking. The ones you see in the display case were made of ceramic.
THE POTTER

3. FIND THIS CUP IN THE DISPLAY CASE AND EXAMINE IT. WHICH ANIMAL IS BEING CHASED BY A DOG?

5 ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

EXIT THE ROOM AND YOU WILL FIND ANIMALS DRAWN ON A WALL. THOSE WERE RAISED DURING ANTIQUITY. TWO ANIMALS BELOW ARE NOT REPRESENTED. CIRCLE THEM:

6

In the frame right next to it, you can see fibula, a very popular piece of jewelry at the time! They were used to secure clothing. They are the ancestors of safety pins and brooches.

JEWELRY AND BROOCHES

4. I CAN BE MADE OF WATER AND EARTH; I CARRY MY HOUSE ON MY BACK.
5. I HAVE NO LEGS; I CAN SCARE SOME PEOPLE.
